WEDU's Florida This Week Education Special Host Roundtable with Community and Education Leaders

Tampa, FL – WEDU PBS is taking a closer look at education in an upcoming special episode of Florida This Week.

Community and education leaders from across Tampa Bay will sit down for a special round table conversation about the state of our local schools.

Host Rob Lorei is joined for this panel discussion by Senator John Legg, Chairman of the Florida Senate Committee on Pre-K through 12 education (R); Senator Dwight Bullard, member of the Senate Committee on Pre-K through 12 education (D);

Kurt Browning, Superintendent of Pasco County Schools; Doretha Edgcomb, Vice Chair of the Hillsborough County School Board; Robert Buesing, member of the committee for early learning with the Florida Chamber of Commerce.

The Florida This Week Education Special will air on Thursday, September 3 at 8:30 p.m.

ABOUT WEDU PBS

WEDU PBS is West Central Florida's primary PBS station and public media company reaching 16 counties through media platforms including on-air programming and online experiences that broaden horizons, transport and transform and open gateways to new ideas and new worlds. Financially supported by the community, the organization offers a wealth of award-winning inspirational, educational and enlightening content over a variety of media platforms including: television programming, station's website, www.wedu.org and various social media platforms, monthly member magazine Premiere, educational outreach activities and a myriad of special events. WEDU's focus on the local community has resulted in the station being regarded as a beacon of trust for men, women and children of every walk of life no matter their age, ethnicity or socio-economic status. WEDU is a treasured community resource; a window to the world for the homebound and a vital educational source for the youngest members of society. WEDU prides itself on its position in the Tampa Bay community as a leader, partner, informed citizen and a member of PBS, the most trusted institution in America (ORC International's DualFrame CARAVAN, January 2015).
